

The Ministry of National Guard Health Affairs (NGHA) is a governmental healthcare institution serving the population of National Guard employees and their dependents. At present NGHA is comprised of two (2) major medical cities – King Abdulaziz Medical City, Riyadh (1229 beds) and King Abdulaziz Medical City, Jeddah (566 beds) and three hospitals – King Abdulaziz Hospital, Al Ahsa (332 beds), Imam Abdulrahman Bin Faisal Hospital, Dammam (163 beds) and Prince Mohammad bin Abdulaziz Hospital, Madinah (320 beds). These hospitals are undergoing continuous expansion and another 320 beds specialty hospital, the King Abdullah Specialized Children’s Hospital, Riyadh is expected to be opened soon. NGHA has also 74 healthcare facilities kingdom-wide.

Website

<http://www.ngha.med.sa>

Mission

Ministry of National Guard Health Affairs provides optimum healthcare to SANG personnel, their dependents and other eligible patients. MNGHA also provides excellent academic opportunities, conducts research and participates in industry and community service programs in the health field.

Vision

Ministry of National Guard Health Affairs will be recognized as internationally acclaimed centers of excellence to enhance individual and public health status.

Core Values

Ministry of National Guard Health Affairs adhere to core values taken from religious, social and professional principles, abiding by:

- Respect religious and social values
- Patient safety and satisfaction
- Quality performance
- Respect and dignity
- Transparency
- Teamwork
- Productive work environment
- Accountability
- Behavior and work ethic
- Excellence and innovation